Short Goal Statement:	The leadership of NEAIR guides the association through professional development opportunities, shares in nurturing the culture of its membership, and ultimately strengthens IR as a profession. As Recording Secretary, I would contribute to that process and support the processes that NEAIR has thoughtfully put into place.	I have 24 years of experience in Institutional Research, and I have served on multiple leadership committees during my career which included everything from Diversity and Student Retention to Assessment and Accreditation. I have also had the opportunity to be a member of a NEASC Evaluation Team. I believe my professional communication and organizational skills will be an asset to the Board in the role of Recording Secretary. I look forward to the chance to help guide the future of NEAIR and to serve you as a member.

2014 NEAIR Governing Board Slate of Leaders
Steering Committee – Private Institution (select 1 candidate):

Title:	Director of Institutional Research	Assistant VP of Institutional Research and Planning
Institution:	Brown University	Point Park University
Education:	M.A. in Clinical Psychology, Clark University B.A., Brown University	M.A. in Experimental Psychology, University of Hartford B.A. in Psychology, Indiana University of Pennsylvania
Service to NEAIR/AIR or state affiliates:	North East Association for Institutional Research (NEAIR) member 1995 to present Associate Program Chair -- 2013 Local Arrangements Coordinator, Newport -- 2008 Nominations Committee – 2001-2002 Association for Institutional Research (AIR) member Rhode Island-IR Association member	North East Association for Institutional Research (NEAIR) member 20+ years Technology Committee – 2012-2013 Conference Website Coordinator – 2010-2012 Conference Presenter, most recently as part of an AICUP consortium on Diversity Association for Institutional Research (AIR) member 20+ years Conference Presenter
Short Goal Statement:	When I first joined the IR “world” as a young analyst I was offered the opportunity to attend a NEAIR conference in Burlington, VT. It was 1995. Fast-forward almost twenty years and I still feel that NEAIR as an organization and the annual conference in particular is a fantastic place for those new to IR and veterans to share information, build networks of colleagues, and learn tricks of our ever-growing trade. Our profession can be isolating and NEAIR provides a welcome solution to that. Having benefitted from years of membership in NEAIR I would like to give something back to an organization that has given me so much and would be honored to have the opportunity to serve as a Steering Committee member.	As an individual who has been working in the field of Institutional Research for over 20 years, I have had several opportunities to serve on a variety of steering committees. In each of these cases, it was imperative to consider the mission of the organization. Likewise, NEAIR has had a great tradition of vibrancy and innovation focusing on professional development and best practices in institutional research. As a member of the steering committee, my goal will be to support and further this mission. I feel that my vast IR experience and ability to work effectively as part of a team will allow me to accomplish this.

		European Association for Institutional Research (EAIR) member 2007-2009 Paper presentation at 2008 conference
Short Goal Statement:	I would like to serve NEAIR and continue to support the high quality professional development opportunities provided by the organization. If elected as a member of the steering committee, I would work with the other members to ensure that the organization is fiscally sound, well governed, and on a path to accomplish its strategic plan.	NEAIR is a vibrant professional community that provides excellent development and networking opportunities. If elected to be of service to my IR colleagues as an At Large member of the NEAIR Steering Committee, my goal would be to further the opportunities for accessible, timely, and cost effective professional development and networking. My broad experiences in a variety of institutional types will help me as an At Large representative to be mindful of the needs of our diverse membership. I would like to see NEAIR continue to be responsive and relevant to a wide range of our membership's professional development needs.

Short Goal Statement:	As the growth of NEAIR continues, I will work with the other committee members to reach out to the membership in order to provide a well-balanced ballot consisting of engaged, innovative NEAIR members for the next NEAIR election. To that end, I will seek new research professionals to become involved in the leadership of our professional organization. It is important that the organization always be looking to the future to maintain growth and continued presence with AIR.	Continually seek knowledge and expertise in support of the IR profession - to provide information that will enhance college effectiveness and support the planning and decision-making process.

Short Goal Statement:	NEAIR is an outstanding professional organization. As a member of the Nominations Committee, I would like to help NEAIR continue its tradition of selecting qualified and energetic leaders to continue the work of the organization. I am especially interested in helping NEAIR in its efforts to provide a channel for communication and collaboration among professionals working within the fields of institutional research and institutional effectiveness.	My goal, while serving on the Nominations Committee, is to broaden and enrich the NEAIR leadership base to ensure continued strong programming and member participation for the future of NEAIR.

Short Goal Statement:	I would like to see NEAIR continue its excellent service to the institutional research community by providing conference and professional development activities that meet the needs of practicing institutional researchers. My experience working at community colleges, four year private, four year public, and an online public college has given me a broad background that will help me recommend the best candidates for NEAIR leadership positions.	I hope to be elected to the nominations committee to continue to serve our organization in an effort to serve the membership of NEAIR. It would be an honor and privilege to serve and be elected for this position. I would work hard to network and help find nominations and continue to help get members involved in the organization. As we all know this is mostly a volunteer and member run organization and we need to continue to engage members to serve the organization and to draw on their professional and personal talents to continue to offer superior benefits for our members. The nominations committee helps to continue to build a pool of candidates to elect into leadership positions. I will work hard to help promote the various ways and opportunities that members can help NEAIR continue to be a high quality organization.
